Rich Smith Named Business Development Manager

August 15, 2006 (Weedsport, NY) – Richard L. Smith has joined Page Trucking as its Business Development Manager. Smith will be cultivating new business opportunities, nationally, for Page E.T.C. Inc. and Page Transportation, Inc.

“Rich comes to us with over 30 years of sales and operations experience in bulk trucking,” says President Dan Titus. “He has a firm grasp on the dynamics that are important to shippers. I believe that Rich is going to prove himself to be a valuable ally to shippers, who are receiving poor service and support from their current carriers.”

“As Page continues its unprecedented growth, we expect that Rich Smith will be a major contributor,” continues Titus. “Rich’s strong, positive reputation in the marketplace... combined with Page’s impeccable reputation, should open some new doors for us.”

Rich Smith can be reached directly at 800- 821-3547 or by email at rsmith@pagetrucking.com

Page E.T.C. has 100+ semi-trucks engaged in the bulk transportation of hazardous waste and non-hazardous waste throughout the East, Midwest and South, as well as Canada. Page E.T.C.’s fleet includes primarily semi-dump trailers, along with tank, pneumatic and van trailers and roll-off containers. The firm has multiple offices east of the Mississippi.

Page Transportation, likewise, has 100+ semi-trucks engaged in the bulk transportation of industrial products, general freight and hazardous materials throughout the East, Midwest and South, as well as Canada. Page’ Transportation’s fleet includes mostly semi-dump trailers, along with tank, pneumatic and van trailers and roll-off containers. The firm has multiple offices east of the Mississippi.

Both companies are wholly owned subsidiaries of Keith Titus Corporation; all three companies enjoy Woman Owned Business status, as designated by New York State: Page E.T.C. Inc. is certified under file # 50156; Page Transportation has file # 50157; Keith Titus Corp. is certified under file # 49538. More background on the companies can be found at www.pagetrucking.com.
